2. I love anything spicy. My favourite spicy dish is Indian curry.
3. I love anything spicy. I'm better now but I used to put chilli sauce on everything.
4. I love anything spicy. I always add chilli sauce to everything.
5. I love anything spicy. Actually, I'm going to have spicy hot pot this evening with a few good friends!
6. I love anything spicy. Not that I care, but I heard that spicy food can help with weight loss!

Part 2: 心智圖答題法

Describe a hotel.

You should say:

where the hotel was why you stayed at that particular hotel
give details of the hotel
and the view from it and explain what makes the hotel special.

Part 2: 心智圖答題法

- If you're looking for a decent hotel to stay at in Taipei, I definitely recommend The W Hotel. I just celebrated my birthday there in September and it was an absolutely amazing experience.
- First of all, as soon as I checked in, I received a bag of chocolate brownie biscuits as my birthday present from the hotel. I normally don't eat sweets, but I ate them all because they were just so yummy.
- Our room was on the 27th floor, so as soon as I walked into the room, I was overwhelmed by the view overlooking Taipei. The giant glass windows made the room so bright and spacious. Taipei 101 was really close to us. It had such a luxurious and party-like vibe, as though we were in the VIP room at a high-profile night club. The décor was just so chic, modern and minimal, which I love! When I opened the minibar I was pleasantly surprised by the variety of booze they had, including red wine, white wine, Prosecco, rum, vodka – you name it! They even provided a shaker for us to mix our own drinks. How sweet!
- My date and I went down to the Woo Bar to have a few more drinks in the evening for a change of atmosphere. It was very convenient to have a chic bar right inside the hotel. We later ordered room service, which was recommended by so many friends, and the Indonesian fried rice lived up to its reputation. It was rather spicy but really delicious.
- We got room service again in the morning. This time we ordered blueberry yogurt, croissants and muffins with two pots of coffee. It was just so nice to eat breakfast in our own space while enjoying the city view. Oh, did I mention the night view? It was really a million-dollar view!
- All in all, I have to say it was an unforgettable experience to spend a night at the W Hotel. It was a great place in such a great location – the city centre. However, they only allow you to check in after 4pm and you have to check out by 12 the next day. So, we didn't really have time to explore other facilities in the hotel, like the pool and the gym, which are supposed to be really good too! And of course, it's a bit pricey. Perhaps next time I should plan a two-night stay there!

Part 3: AEC 答題法

問題

Who goes to coffee shops in your country? Young people or old people?

回答

Young people.

解釋

Young people like to hang out in coffee shops.

舉例

When I go to Starbucks, most customers there are in their 20's or 30's.

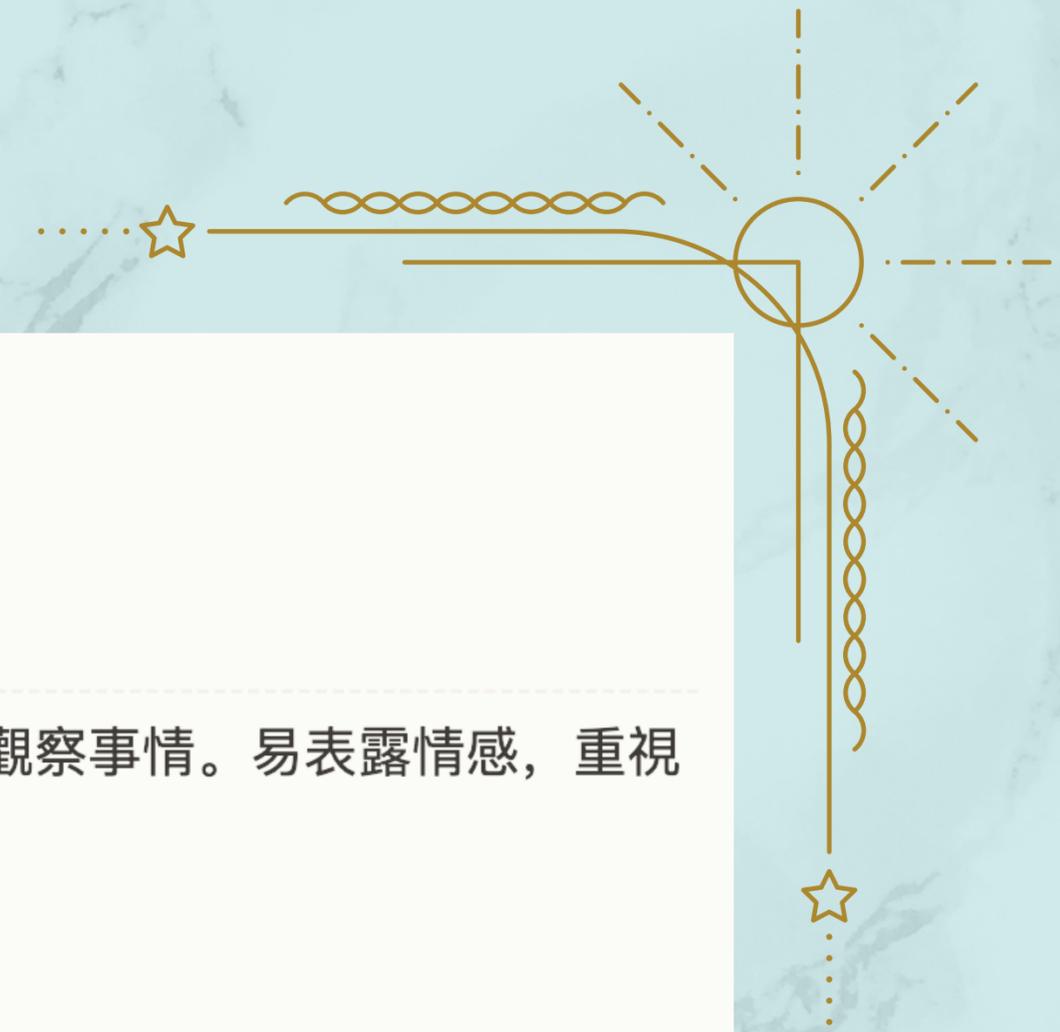

讓步

But I guess more and more older people are going to coffee shops.

結論

Nowadays, you see people from all walks of life in cafes.
